

LEA Wide Parent and Family Engagement Policy

LEAs in consultation with parents, may use the sample template below as a framework for the information to be included in their LEA-Wide Parent and Family Engagement Policy. LEAs are not required to follow this sample template or framework, but if they establish the LEA expectations for parent and family engagement and include all of the components listed under Part II of this document, "Description of How LEA will Implement Required LEA Wide Parent and Family Engagement Policy Components" below, they will have incorporated the information that section 1116(a)(2) requires be in the LEA Wide Parent and Family Engagement Policy. LEAs in consultation with parents, are encouraged to include other relevant and agreed upon activities and actions as well that will support effective parent and family engagement and strengthen student academic achievement.

- x In carrying out the Title I, Part A parent and family engagement requirements, to the extent practicable, the LEA and its schools will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required under section 1111 of the ESEA in an understandable and uniform format ~~and~~ including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.
- x If the LEA plan for Title I, Part A, developed under section 1112 of the ESEA, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school district will submit any parent comments with the plan if requested by the New York State Education Department (NYSED).
- x The LEA will involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the one percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement is spent, and will ensure that not less than 90 percent of the one percent reserve goes directly to the schools.
- x The LEA will be governed by the following statutory definition of parent and family engagement, and expects that its Title I schools will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with this definition:

Parent and family engagement means the participation of parents in regular ~~ways~~ and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring—

- (A) that parents play an integral role in assisting their children's learning;
- (B) that parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education ~~school~~;
- (C) that parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, decisionmaking and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child; and
- (D) the carrying out of other activities, such as those described in section 1116 of ~~ESEA~~
