

The Office of Bilingual Education and World Languages of the New York State Education Department presents

Unit Planning Part 2: Checkpoint A

Tuesday, November 9, 2021 14:00 - 5:00 PM

Checkpoint A students deserve rich, engaging units that maximize target language use and build global awareness. Learn to apply key principles of unit design to your setting. Explore a case study of how a textbook chapter on the house can be transformed into a thematic unit about the tiny house movement and variations in global dwellings. You will leave with a